

Business Startup Innovation with a Focus on Portugal

Sandra Sick

December 9, 2013

Innovation is EVERYWHERE!

But Today We Will Focus On...

- Business Startup Innovation with a focus on Portugal.
- Acceleration and incubation programs and what is happening in Portugal.
- A quick look at some very innovative companies in Portugal.
- A look at Startup funding.
- Topic discussion/Q&A.

Just Who Am I?

MY FIRST BUSINESS

Quick Bio

- Born into a family of entrepreneurs.
- Degree in Business Administration/Marketing.
- Worked for and with many well-funded US startups in the past 20+ years.
- Marketing Consultant for last 10+ years.
- Interested in innovative technology and innovative teams and projects.
- An early adopter.

 - The Lisbon Challenge

Accelerators vs. Incubators

Startup Accelerators

- A relatively new, 'modern' breed of for-profit business incubator.
- They usually attract small teams through an open application process.
- They provide a select number of mostly technology companies with seed funding, mentoring, training and more, for a limited time.
- In the US, accelerators like Y Combinator and TechStars boast application acceptance rates between 1% & 3%.

How Accelerators Work

- Startup acceleration programs usually last about 3 months; some do run longer.
- Most accelerators DO NOT charge for the program but they take an equity stake in participating startup.
- Equity typically runs between 6% & 12%.
- After completing the program, startups are supposed to have used the capital, mentorship and feedback to gradually evolve into a viable business and lead to additional funding.

How to Get Into a Startup Accelerator

1. Take part in a pre-accelerator
2. Explain your idea in simple terms
3. Be original
4. Show that your product already has traction
5. Be realistic with your valuation
6. Know your market
7. Don't pitch via Skype
8. Know how to keep your audience engaged
9. Demo your product
10. Be honest
11. Pick a confident speaker
12. Try, try and try again

European Accelerators

European Accelerator Scene

- There are currently an estimated 600 accelerator programs in Europe today.
- Y Combinator was the first accelerator in Europe when it opened in March 2005.
- Seedcamp, TechStars London (formerly Springboard), Founder Institute and Startup Bootcamp are some of the biggest names in Europe.
- And now there are many corporate backed accelerators such as Wayra (Telefonica), hub:raum (Deutsche Telekom), Orange FAB (Orange).

Seedcamp – Google Campus London

"274 startups in the Campus community report successful access to funding in the last 12 months, raising an estimated £34M"

Seedcamp (London)

- Seedcamp Lisbon: Nov 2012 & Oct 2013.

 - €150K in prize money.
 - Office space for 30 years!
- Portugal Ventures
- ISCTE-IUL Building Global Innovators program with MIT Portugal
- Other University Accelerators
- Other players

Incubators

- Business or startup incubators are programs designed to support the successful development of entrepreneurial companies through a wide range of support services.
- Companies can tap into the network of contacts through the incubator.
- Incubators vary in the way they deliver their services, in their org structure and in the types of startups they have in their network.

Portugal Incubators

- State/private-funded, non-profit incubator.
- Three office buildings in Lisbon; two full and the third will start renovation in 2014.
- Houses the majority of the most promising startups in Lisbon.
- Has the highest density of any startup incubator in Europe.
- Seedcamp invested in 7 Startup Lisboa companies in the last year.

“Quis desenvolver uma rede social para mudar o mundo”

WILLIAM CARVALHO

Estávamos em 2008 quando criamos a Inpakt, a primeira rede social de empresas e líderes sociais no Brasil. Comecei a trabalhar na área de tecnologia. Um ano depois, senti um pouco de tédio e decidi criar algo que fosse diferente. Foi então que nasceu a Inpakt. Foi um projeto muito especial para mim, porque eu queria fazer uma rede social que fosse diferente das outras. Não queria apenas conectar pessoas, eu queria criar uma comunidade que fosse capaz de mudar o mundo. Foi assim que nasceu a Inpakt. The Financial Story

- Success and failures
- Exits vs IPO
- The current Top 10
- Sources of funding

Not all Innovative Companies Succeed

A recent study by Allmand Law found that more than 90% of all startups fail.

- February 2013

The Holy Grail – The Exit

- A successful exit
 - Going public vs. getting acquired
- The number of startups that have gone public in the US over the past decade is down about 75% from the previous decade, to about 10% of startup exits.
- Today, 8 times as many successful startups are acquired, as compared to the number attempting to go public.
- In China and India the statistics are reversed.

The New Reality

The 25 tech companies with the most funding are in no
rush to IPO!

A Look at the Top 10

- JD.com (formerly 360buy.com), China: $1.2 billion.
 - Largest online consumer retailer in China. Founded: 1998.
- SurveyMonkey, Palo Alto: $965 million.
 - World's largest online survey company. Founded: 1999.
- Living Social, Washington, D.C. : $924 million.

- Jawbone, San Francisco: $403 million.
 - High technology hardware product maker. Founded: 1999.

Sources of Funding

Biggest source of funding for most startups is actually surprising.

Want to guess the #1 source for startup funding????

Funding

- In the US, 565,000 startups launch each month.
- These startups will then raise around $78,406 each.
- That means there is about $531 billion worth of startup capital flying around each year.
- Only $22 billion of that comes from those rich dudes sitting on Sandhill Road. <.05%>
- Angel investors, those well-off individuals who like to get in early on a company, only make up around $20 billion. <.91%>

So...

- Founders invest $185.5 billion annually from their own pockets to fund these budding companies. <57%>
- But if you're looking for something external, it seems friends and family are the most generous. Their cash makes up about $60 billion worth of yearly startup capital. Way more than VC's and Angel investors. <38%>
- The balance of the funding comes from banks (1.43%) and crowdfunding.
- Crowdfunding is the fastest growing source of raising funds. 1 million campaigns so far!
