

Instructions for Assignment 1

There are two assignments in this class. Students are expected to work in a group. A file containing group members, their photos, and group-name is requested for each working group.

For the first assignment, the students are asked to produce a descriptive text containing a historical perspective about the evolution of the Portuguese capital market, currently named Euronext.Lisbon, from its inception to the present day. In this paper the main historical facts, should be identified, and if possible, an interpretation of its importance.

The document to be submitted is subject to limitations of words, including a maximum of 3,500 words, excluding tables, bibliography and appendices. The number of words should be said on the front page of the document.

The report must be physically printed. The final delivery date is Friday 30th October 2015.