

ISEG, doctoral program in Economics
2017-2018
Advanced Macroeconomics

Professor: Miguel St. Aubyn, mstaubyn@iseg.ulisboa.pt

Syllabus

1. Centralised and decentralised economy
2. Economic growth
3. Public finance
4. Open economy
5. Money and monetary policy
6. Economic fluctuations and dynamic general equilibrium models

Assessment

Final exam, 70%, with a mark higher than 9/20.

Essay, 30%, to be delivered one week after the exam.

Main reference

Wickens (2011), Macroeconomic Theory: A Dynamic General Equilibrium Approach, 2nd edition, Princeton University Press.